

Agenda for Institutional Analysis Workshop

Thursday

- 3pm-5pm Preliminary Registration
- 3:30pm-5pm Author Discussions: Presentation of publication opportunities and standards for the Workshop Proceedings (USGS Scientific Investigations Report) and paper selection process for International Journal of Public Administration and Sustainability: Science, Practice, and Policy.
- 7pm Steering Committee Dinner (no host)

Friday

- 8am until 8:30am Registration (Reception Area of Building C)
- 8:30am until 9am Welcome and Introductions (Main Conference Room)
- 9am until 9:30am Keynote presentation (Main Conference Room)
- 9:30am to 10am Break with refreshments
- 10am until noon Concepts and Theories in Institutional Analysis
(Main Conference Room--Rapporteur)

Söderbaum—"A political economics approach to institutional change and Sustainable Development"
Paavola—"Environmental Conflicts and Interdependence: A New Institutional Approach"
van de Griendt—"An institutional law & economics perspective on the analysis of legal regimes for integrated management of estuaries/watersheds"

- noon to 1:30pm Lunch (no-host)
- 1:30 until 3pm Comparison and Evaluation of Methods and Theories
(Main Conference Room—Rapporteur)

Hidaka—"Institutional characteristics of fisheries management systems: comparative analysis between Australia and Japan"
Kauneckis & Imperial—"Revisiting Lake Tahoe: comparing the Advocacy Coalition Framework (ACF) and Institutional Rational Choice (IRC)"
Koontz—"Collaborative Environmental Management and the Role of the State: A Framework for Analyzing Institutional Arrangements and Stakeholder Behavior"

Public Participation Strategies (Training Room--Rapporteur)

Koontz & Hoag—"Disparate Stakeholder Management of Wildlife Issues in the Southern Greater Yellowstone Area"
Hamilton—"The U.S. Commission on Ocean Policy: Impacts of Public Involvement on Recommendation Development"
Ryan—"Community-based vs. Inter-agency collaboration: An assessment of alternative governance strategies for environmental management"

- 3pm until 3:30pm Break with refreshments

3:30pm until 4:30pm Comparison and Evaluation of Methods and Theories
(Main Conference Room—Rapporteur)
King—“The Changing Face of Inter-organizational Decision-Making: an evaluation of the Legal-Institutional Analysis Model”
Day—“Applications of Q Methodology to a Variety of Policy Process Theories and Frameworks”

Application of Methods to Non-governmental Institutional Designs
(Training Room—Rapporteur)
York & Hoover—“Cooperative Management of Private Forestland in Indiana: An Institutional Analysis of Existing Legal Mechanisms”
Gyawali—“How Do Local Institutions Manage Forest Resources Sustainably? Institutional Analysis of two-Community Forest User Groups from the Middle Hills of Nepal”

4:30pm until 5:30pm Rapporteur presentations about Methods, Theories, and Public Participation
(Main Conference Room)

7pm Informal Dinner for Workshop Participants (details to be provided)

Saturday

8am until 9:30am Tying Theory to Practice and Lessons for Environmental Managers
(Main Conference Room—Rapporteur)
Cortner—“Institutional Analysis in the Evaluation of the Northwest Economic Adjustment Initiative”
Schoon—“A Robustness Analysis of the Creation of Peace Parks in Southern Africa Using the Institutional Analysis Framework”
Flaim—“Institutional and Environmental Constraints on HydroPower Operations on the Upper Colorado: History and Evolution”

9:30am until 10am Break with refreshments

10am until 11:30am Application of Methods to Government Institutional Designs
(Main Conference Room--Rapporteur)

Pacheco-Vega—“Institutional Analysis within the Lerma-Chapala Region: New Challenges for Watershed Management”
Lybecker—“Use of the Legal-Institutional Analysis Model in Mexican Environmental Disputes”
Hearne—“A Review of Local Water Management Institutions in the Red River of the North Valley”

Application of Methods to Non-governmental Institutional Designs
(Training Room—Rapporteur)

Andersson—“ Identifying the institutional underpinnings for successful local forest governance: An application of the Institutional Analysis and Development Framework”
Day—“Linking Management of Private Resources to Protection of a Common-Pool Resource: An Institutional Analysis of the Washington State Forests and Fish Plan”
Diwakara—“Self-Governed Institutions as a Complement to Regulation of Common Pool Resources achieving Sustainable Allocation Processes”

11:30am until 1pm Lunch (no-host)

1pm until 3:30pm

Application of Methods to Government Institutional Designs
(Main Conference Room--Rapporteur)

Kröger—"The Formation of the Finnish Agri-environmental Policy in the Advocacy Coalition Framework"

Pyhala—"Institutions, Institutional Relations, and Protected Area Management in Peruvian Amazonia"

Boyd—"Addressing vertical cross-scale interplay among scale-dependent resource regimes: a case of the NKMCAP in Bolivia"

3:30pm until 4pm

Break with refreshments

Paavola—"Adding Resolution to Institutional Analysis: Institutional Design and Transaction Costs"

4:30pm until 5pm

Rapporteur Presentations about Application of Methods